

Green HOPE Coaching with

Kathy Burrus

Hope Coach,
Author and Speaker

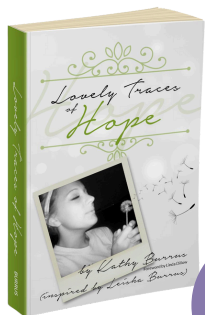

Kathy Burrus is passionate about stories and the people who live them. As a pastor's wife and mother of three daughters, she knows firsthand how life can get messy. Through her journey, she learned to embrace her own story and respond with hope, even in the toughest times.

Kathy's experiences inspired her to become a certified life and grief coach, dedicated to empowering other women to find hope and make a remarkable difference in their own lives and communities.

Kathy invites you to explore the powerful messages to be found within your story, revealing who you truly are and your life's purpose. With authentic transparency about her life struggles, Kathy encourages you to interact with your stories, intentionally embrace loss, and fully engage with life.

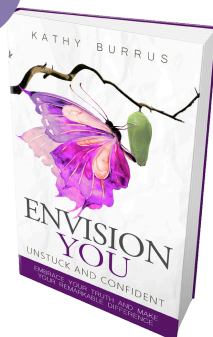

- Be refreshed by the beauty of your journey,
- Be empowered to love God, yourself and others more deeply
- Be renewed by the remarkable difference you make in your world!
